ALCHEMY OF NUMEROLOGY

Unlocking the mystery

The fundamental premise of numerology is that life is orderly system and that numbers reflect that orderliness. Our understanding of what is the orderliness and what is the random changes with our knowledge. As we learn more, we understand more.

Unknown from yesterday is the part of normal knowledge today.

With quantum physics things change enormously. It is demonstrating that the reality of universe is unity in which all things are related.

Numerology is based upon this understanding showing that we are also part of this unique cosmic unity and giving the answers about things that rational mind is not able to enter and understand.

Numbers can be seen as archetypes. Through numbers we can discover our personal code which is our connection with the universe as a whole. Knowing our code we come closer to the understanding not only about our being but about this unity as well.

Psychological Analysis shows the main aspects of the personality and life path that one goes in this incarnation. It helps in better understanding of all personal traits and characteristics. It shows the way how to bring balance or imbalance in our character into a harmony.

It reveals the dreams hidden in our heart showing the motivation behind many of our actions.

It presents us in communication with others revealing our protective mask.

It indicates some special talents we possess which shape our life.

Since our life on Earth is a school we take a part in some mysterious way, we make our decisions as a part of our education. Things that must be learned and mastered during this lifetime are our Karmic lessons. This analysis will present Karmic Lessons and our Karmic Debt.

And finally it will reveal how all these vibrations are compatible making one unique personality.

LIFE PATH

The message of Haley's Birth Date

If ever there was a moment of total transformation, it was the moment of our birth. In that instant, we stepped through a door in time into a new reality -- the reality of human life. The most important number in one's numerology chart is based on the date of the birth, the moment when the curtain goes up in the life.

Even at that moment, Haley was a person with his own unique character, as unique as his DNA. Everything that is him existed in potential, much like a play that is about to begin. His entire life exists as a potential that has been prepared for. He will have ultimate freedom to do with his life as he likes: To fulfill its potential completely, or to make some smaller version of himself. It all depends upon his effort and commitment. He will make decisions to fulfill, to whatever extent, the potential life that exists within him. That will be his choice. In this sense, the possible he is implicit during the moment of his birth.

The Life Path number gives us a broad outline of the opportunities, challenges, and lessons we will encounter in this lifetime. Milan's Life path is the road he is traveling. It reveals the opportunities and challenges he will face in life. His Life Path number is the single most important information available in your Personality Chart!

It is also important for his parents to know it as it is one of the possible way to help him and to support him in his effort to do the best.

Haley's Life Path vibrates 13/4

Haley is practical, down to earth with strong ideas about right and wrong. He is orderly and organized, systematic and controlled, he is decisive and methodical employing a step by step rational approach to problems solving. Once committed he does not give up easily!

He is not one for "get rich quick" schemes. Rather he uses hard work and long hours to build a business or career; he seeks to establish a solid foundation. Precise, tenacious and persevering, he has great potential for success, but only after putting out effort and overcoming the limitations he so often encounters. Justice and honesty are sacred to him. He is reliable and dependable, a cornerstone in the community.

Though not an idealist, he is willing to work for a better world in a realistic way. However, he can be rigid in his ideas and sometimes too quick in judging your fellow man. He is loyal to those he loves and works well with others. It is important that while being part of a team he has his own responsibility and well- defined task, he performs better when his responsibilities are not overlapping with those of others. He has to be careful not to be bossy and rude. He possesses rare discipline and perseverance and not everyone can keep up with him.

He can handle money carefully and like the security of a nest egg.

His love of work often leads him into a career early in life. Because of his methodical nature he can easily become rigid and stuck in convention. He can also be overly cautious when changes are necessary, this can cause him to miss opportunities that present themselves. He must cultivate flexibility in his character. He is well suited for marriage and often becomes a responsible loving parent. However, anything that violates his profound sense of order, such as separation or divorce can be a shattering experience for him. He becomes easily obsessed and even vengeful, seeking his own definition of justice.

He is courageous and a true survivor. He is a builder and the foundation of any enterprise. His hard work and practical, traditional values pay off to provide him with the rewards he seeks and deserves.

Karmic Debt

Haley's 13 Life Path is somewhat burdened by the presence of a Karmic Debt.

Those with the 13 Karmic Debt will work very hard to accomplish any task. Obstacles stand in their way, and must be overcome time and again. One may often feel burdened and frustrated by the seeming futility of one's efforts there may be a desire to surrender to the difficulties and simply give up on the goal, believing it was impossible to attain in the first place. Some with the 13 Karmic Debt falls to laziness and negativity. But efforts are not futile, and success is well within reach. One simply must work hard, and persevere in order to reach the goal. Many highly successful people including business, art, and athletics, have a 13 Karmic Debt.

The key to succeeding with the 13 is focus. Very often, people with the 13 Karmic Debt do not concentrate or direct their energies in one specific direction, or on a single task, but scatter their energies over many projects and jobs, none of which amount to very much. A temptation with the 13 is to take shortcuts for quick success. Too often, that easy success doesn't come, causing regret and the desire to give up. The result is a poor self-image, and the belief that one is incapable of amounting to very much.

In order to focus, Haley must maintain order in his life. Order is essential to success. He must maintain a schedule, keeps appointments, and follows through. He has to keep his environment neat and under control, and never procrastinate. If he sustains a steady and consistent effort, he will realize much reward.

BIRTHDAY

The main secret of Haley's creativity

The day we were born bears great significance in understanding who we are and where our talents lie. The day of birth indicates some special talent we possess. It is a gift that will help us along your Life's Path. Day of birth is one of four core numbers -- the Life Path, Expression, and Heart's Desire being the other three. It is the least significant of the four core numbers, but perhaps the most finite, in that it reveals a specific ability we possess in a marked degree.

Haley's Birthday vibrates 10

Haley is highly ambitious and yearns for independence. He has leadership abilities, and a strong drive for success. His test in life is to live according to his dream -- that is, to have the courage and the stamina to overcome obstacles and win the independence he so deeply wants.

He has a sharp mind and fine analytical skills. He has excellent managerial skills. He plans well and can organize people to carry out his plan.

He is often frustrated by routine activities. He can become dull and even depressed if he is bound too tightly to the smaller details of life.

In order to rescue him from such a fate, it will be necessary to take prudent risks. Haley must learn to assert him. He is a pioneer at heart. He must live up to such a charge.

He can be stubborn and rigid when it comes to ideas that he feels strongly about. Yet, he is a loyal and devoted friend and can be demonstrative of his affections.

Conversely, he is highly competitive and can suffer from jealousy when it comes to the success of others, especially colleagues or friends.

By using the determination and creativity he has, he can achieve much success.

EXPRESSION

The message of Haley's name

Expression number reveals physical and mental constitution, the orientation or goal of life. Some numerologists refer to this number as the Destiny, because it represents a lifelong target at which we are aiming. We work at fulfilling this potential every day of our life. Thus, the Expression number reveals our inner goal, the person we aim to be.

The Expression number reveals the talents, abilities, and shortcomings that were with us when we entered our human body. Our name, and the numbers derived from it, reveals our development, as well as the talents and issues we will be working with during this life.

For those for whom reincarnation is an accepted philosophy, the vibration of your full name can be seen as the totality of your personal evolution, the experiences, talents, and wisdom accumulated over many life times. Every experience, no matter how great or small, along this evolutionary path has influenced your development, and brought you to your current state of being.

The Expression is our being; the Life Path is the major lesson we are attempting to learn this time around. Time allows the gradual emergence of our personality.

By reading the Expression number below, Haley will come to understand his basic nature and the abilities and issues inherent in his being.

Haley's Expression vibrates 17/8

Haley has the power and potential to achieve great things. It is both his challenge and his birthright to gain dominion over a small part of the earth. Whatever his enterprises, he will strive to be the best and most successful in his field. He is highly competitive and will not rest until he is satisfied that he has bypassed the opposition. He enjoys challenges and rivalry.

He is a realist and a visionary planner. Money and authority are available to him if he is willing to discipline himself -- generally an inborn talent significantly intensified with the vibration of his Rational thought -- and persevere in the face of the considerable obstacles in his path.

He is dynamic and has a talent for efficiency. He understands the larger picture, sees the broader challenges, and knows how to marshal his collective resources to address the problems. He delegates responsibility well; it is best for him to leave many of the details to others.

Haley is a great leader of people and an outstanding judge of character. He is demanding of those who work for him, often putting things in no uncertain terms: do it my way or don't do it at all!

At the same time, he will not hesitate to reward the faithful and hardworking employee. He is not a particularly tolerant leader; too much tolerance violates his sense of efficiency. He goes directly after his goal with courage and tenacity.

Haley has a natural understanding of money, authority, and power. He is able to struggle consistently after his goal. Eventually power falls to him. Within him lies an innate balance between the higher and lower characteristics of man. Haley's challenge in life is to balance his higher ideals and his understanding of the hard realities of the earth.

Much effort will have to be put out and many ups and downs experienced before he will reach the level of success he desires. Life will probably test Him many times with obstacles that seem insurmountable. But in reality, these are merely opportunities for him to learn how to use power and authority in the face of difficulties, and to find out just how much power lies within him.

It is crucial for Haley's success that he balances the material and the spiritual. He has chosen a path that requires balance between giving and taking, reward and punishment, action and reaction. Despite the obstacles on his path, he is a true survivor.

When focused exclusively on his desire for results and success, he can become stubborn and intolerant; he can be driven by excessive ambition, causing him to be exacting and without perspective.

He should be careful of alcohol consumption, a danger-zone for him. Attention for those around him! He can be a social drinker, mixing business with pleasure -- a dangerous cocktail.

An excellent manager, organizer and administrator he has talents in many areas of life.

He has been entrusted with special gifts, the use or abuse of which has an immediate and often physical effect upon him and those around him! He should use these gifts for the good of mankind and accept his own good fortune with gratitude. This is his rewarding stage in his evolution. His is a life time of harvest.

HEART'S DESIRE

Inner urge as a life motivation

Heart's Desire is the inner being. It shows our underlying urge, our true motivation. It reveals the general intention behind many of our actions. Consequently, it dramatically influences the choices we make in life. The Heart's desire is seen as part of the larger picture, called the core numbers, which includes the Life Path, Expression, Day we were born, and Personality. But each points to a different aspect of us.

The Expression number reveals our talents and abilities, and our general direction in life. The Life Path is the central lesson we came into the world to learn. The Day we were born is very closely connected to our Life Path. It reveals specific talents we possess, which will be helpful to us in dealing with our Life Path. The Personality reveals how people tend to see us. It also demonstrates what characteristics we are projecting to the world.

As the Heart's Desire demonstrates the identity of the soul that joined the earth, reading the text below Haley will learn about his spiritual being.

Haley's Heart's Desire is 28/1

Haley's overpowering need is to be independent and to direct his own life according to what he believes. His dream is to become the leader of whatever field he enters. Whether it is in business, community, or in his general area of expertise, he is driven to be the reigning figure.

He has the courage and the confidence to lead others. He believes firmly that his judgment is preeminent over all others. This gives him the confidence to make bold decisions and carry them out, even when other lives are greatly affected by what he does. He rarely looks back once he has made a decision.

He possesses intelligence and wit. He is keenly insightful and is good at evaluating the abilities of others.

Haley is supremely individualistic. In his manner and dress, he likes to project his own unique persona.

Consequently, he doesn't mind being controversial, and can even enjoy the attention and impact he has made on his surroundings.

He dislikes routines, or anything that limits his freedom and independence.

Whenever he commits to something he truly loves, he is absolutely tenacious in his ability to endure difficulties and overcome obstacles. He is highly responsible and hates passing the buck. He possesses remarkable willpower and a strong drive to succeed.

Haley is always looking for innovative ways of doing things.

Because he seeks to be the boss in any endeavor, he has a tendency to dominate others. If he is not careful, especially in dealing with his subordinates and family, he may become ruthless in his decisions and behavior. He can also fall victim to impatience and intolerance, particularly if he grows conceited or superior. As he became famous as a very young boy, this aspect needs to be considered seriously.

He is the pioneer and the ground-breaker. He loves the foreground, the hot-seat of responsibility. He has all the talents to succeed. As long as he maintains balance in his life, which is crucial for him because of some other aspects of his chart, allowing others full expression of their thoughts and abilities, he will easily rise to the top of his chosen field and realize his ambitions.

PERSONALITY

How people see Haley

Personality number is derived from the consonants of the full name at birth. Our Personality is like a narrow entrance hall to the great room that is our true nature. It is those aspects that we feel comfortable sharing with people at the outset of a relationship. With time and trust, we invite others into the deeper aspects of our nature; we reveal more of who we really are, in effect, our Heart's Desire, Expression, and so on.

Our Personality number often serves as a censoring device, both in terms of what we send out, as well as what we allow to approach. It discriminates in the kinds of people and information we let enter our heart and mind. For this reason, our Personality is usually much more narrow and protective in its definition than our real being. It can screen out some of what we do not want to deal with -- people or situations -- but it also welcomes those things that immediately relate to our inner nature.

Our Personality number also indicates how others perceive us. No one can be objective about himself or herself. Even our closest friends and relatives have trouble describing how they see us.

Haley's Personality is 16/7

Haley seems mysterious and different. People see him as serious and studious. He is highly independent and self-sufficient. His exceptional intelligence and wisdom are quickly noticed, people respect him. He is not one to attract people on the basis of his warmth or compassion -- though he may be loaded with both -- but because of his obvious insight into life's mysteries.

Haley is hard to get to know. He is often withdrawn. It is common for people to see him focus turn inside of himself in the middle of a conversation.

He has the makings of an intellectual and an aristocrat but he has to guard against arrogance and an attitude of, "I've got it all figured out".

There will be periods in his life when he is little concern for his clothing or fashion, while at other times he could be very aware of his clothing and use it to make a specific impression.

He appears dignified no matter how he dresses. His confidence increases when he knows he is well dressed.

Haley will be recognized as spiritual and religious, with his very own ideas regarding the purpose of life and the Creator.

He is an inspired speaker, but only when discussing subjects that really interests him. Otherwise, he is not one for chatter.

His love of knowledge and wisdom shows.

KARMIC LESSONS

What is to be learn in this life time?

Numerology is based on the understanding that we enter life with certain strengths and weaknesses. Karmic lessons are areas that we are currently weak in and must be faced and worked on in this life. There can be more than one Karmic Lesson. These are indicated by the absence of certain numbers in your name.

The letters and numbers of our name point to talents and abilities that we possess. These characteristics can be compared to a workshop in which certain tools are available to us. Missing numbers, those that are not represented in the letters in our name, imply tools that are unavailable, and must be learned and mastered during this lifetime.

Karmic Lessons may be well recognized as weaknesses we have learned to overcome in the course of our life, however, the challenges implied in our Karmic Lessons will continue to come up occasionally for the rest of our life. Haley has Karmic Lesson 9.

Haley must learn to be more compassionate, tolerant, and understanding. He has to learn to identify with the trials of others. There will be times when he will have to sacrifice some egocentric ambition for the good of a particular project or some larger goal.

He must learn to broaden his view of life in order to see things on a larger scale. He doesn't realize the enormous potential he has in influencing his own destiny and that of others. Therefore, he holds back his efforts at helping people, or furthering a particular social cause. He has an issue with commitment to community or mankind.

HIDDEN PASSION

Metaphorically, this talent can be seen as having a power all its own to shape our life. Its existence gives us a strong desire to develop and to express that particular ability. Having the talent demands that we express it, that we experience this part of us, and that we live according to its nature.

In this way, the Hidden Passion shapes our personality, and guides our life. Haley's strongest vibration is 5.

Haley loves travel, change, and new challenges. He is highly adaptable and versatile. He has a talent for languages, and is generally good with words. Writing, promotion, and public relations work suit him perfectly.

His desire for freedom is extremely strong and it will take effort and discipline to stick with whatever it is he started. There is a tendency to give up a project or situation prematurely.

He may be interested in too many things, which can make it hard for him to apply himself to one area successfully.

He is very unconventional.

Commitment in relationships and his work is fundamental to his happiness. He may have a tendency to wander from person to person, job to job, making depth of relationship or deep expertise difficult.

FINAL COMMENTS

Compatibility of Haley's vibrations

With self-knowledge comes a greater awareness of who we are, what our true goals in life are, and what direction we want to set for our life. This, in a nutshell, is the gift of maturity: We don't waste any longer time and energy on things that are not within our own special identity.

No matter what Haley's age is at present, his life is being channeled in a specific direction, toward a very specific goal. That goal can be seen as a reward or the fulfillment of a promise that is implicit in his current efforts, often without him knowing it consciously. The characteristics of this number were probably visible during his childhood, but he tends to lose sight of these aspects until later in life. But his life will be always affected by this influence, nonetheless. Haley's Maturity vibration begins to have a more profound impact on his life after the age 35.

As he matures, he will find himself becoming increasingly extroverted and optimistic about his future. His self-expression and creativity improve markedly. That is why he became inspired to take up some type of artistic endeavor, such as acting.

Haley's ability to communicate will substantially improve. He is naturally more fluent and may find himself dressing with certain flair. He should be careful not to fall victim to superficial appearances, or chasing after glamour and extravagance.

With his 3 vibration in his Maturity Number he can look forward to a pleasant and social latter part of life. His attitude will be increasingly positive and his popularity will rise.

He will most probably experience a great relief from the tension and seriousness of life. He will be more relaxed and capable of enjoying life.

His Maturity Number is a blessing in the latter part of life. It promises enjoyment, close friendships, and much happiness.

Each of us experiences life on four different levels: with our physical body; our mental faculty; our emotional makeup; and our intuition. Each of these areas has a specific means of perceiving information. The physical body is capable of touch, taste, pleasure, and pain. It provides us with a sense of the physical world. The mental body, like the emotional and intuitive natures, perceives the invisible worlds. Our minds deal with the world of thought. The heart, of course, is preoccupied exclusively with the world of emotion. Our feelings teach us many things about ourselves and about others. Finally, we have the capacity for direct contact with the higher realms by way of intuition. Intuitive insight comes in a flash. It is not rational -- that is the world of the mental plane -- but comes as if it were placed at the doorstep of our minds. Intuition, therefore, bypasses all effort.

These four faculties exist in all of us. But each of us depends more on one or two of them for the bulk of our knowledge. Some of us are possessed by our senses, while others live almost exclusively in our hearts, or minds.

Numerology indicates how we as individuals function on each plane.

These Planes of Expression can greatly help not only Haley to understand his talents and abilities but his parents and close friends to understand much better his complete personality.

Haley is active and inspiring; he is daring in business and other areas of life. He has a strong likes and dislikes and will live according to his opinions. He is charming and witty but gets bored easily. He works hard and determined and is very goal-oriented. He thrives on the combination of enthusiasm and challenges, the lack of which makes him dull and disinterested. Reacting with 10/1 physical vibration he has flare, burning brightly for a specific duration, but must move on to other projects in order to sustain his excitement.

Haley is extremely artistic, creative, and a bit flamboyant. That comes from his 21/3 mental vibration. He is attuned to fashion, interior and architectural design. He has a talent for designing office space and landscaping.

However, he can be scattered mentally, having thoughts pop in and out of his mind seemingly at random. He needs to develop discipline and focus. That is where he could need some supportive help from his close surrounding.

Haley is highly emotional possessing a rare degree of balance to which he can turn. He loves family and close friends as few people are able. He worries too much and feels responsible for other people's actions. His 6 vibration in his emotional plane of expression urge him to take justice and honesty with extreme seriousness. Because of this he may be too disciplined, which is underlined with the vibration of his Balance.

His strength lies with understanding people and the underlying conditions of a conflict. But he can rely too heavily on friends and family to provide him solace instead of handling the situation directly and responsibly. He may be too likely to retreat to the good feelings provided by people not involved in his situation.

Responsibility is the issue here. He has to learn accept his role in every situation.

Haley has artistic talent. He likes to help others more than most, and is willing to sacrifice his own needs. He has ability for teaching and healing.

Interestingly how much of these have been already shown through his acting.

He needs much love and can give the same in return. He is highly idealistic, and will be very committed once he decides upon his soul mate.

He has great intuition and insight in abstract and metaphysical matters. He seeks a broad perspective on all intuitive matters. That comes from his 7 vibration in his intuitive plane of expression. He likes to provide scientific and rational support to all of his intuitive insights.

He has an inventive mind and likely has a talent as a writer or composer. As he already proved his talent in the movie art, who knows what all kind of surprises he will show during his further artistic career.

What he can do to make his talents, strengths, and specific abilities from his Expression number more easily available and fitting the needs of his main lesson(s), and expected direction of growth presented in his Life Path?

Haley needs to avoid procrastination and try to be more reliable and punctual, practical, methodical, and systematic in his endeavors keeping track of details, avoiding chaos and working on the basics of life. Physical and outdoor activities bring him closer to himself, so he needs to get out in nature.

How can Haley make his deeper self – his needs and desires, his true nature -- more aligned with the part of his personality others tend to recognize when they meet him?

Haley is highly inventive and unconventional with well harmonious vibrations of Heart Desire and Personality. In order to keep this harmony, Haley needs to be more involved with family and community affairs with grater sense of responsibility and to allow his creativity to flow more freely.

The way he thinks may him not to be satisfied with a simple answer. His Rational Thought vibrates 34/7. He tends to delve into all the aspects of a question until he feels you understand the problem completely. Then he proceeds to solve it with clarity and without hesitation. As he has the same vibration in his intuitive plane of expression, few people are able to compete with him when it comes to finding answers.

He recognizes the underlying factors in a problem situation before anyone else, and is often able to analyze them in a unique and insightful way.

He is a perfectionist and quickly frustrated when he works with people who like to take short-cuts. He appreciates quality more than quantity in any situation.

Greatly supported with his 8 vibration from his Subconscious Self, he handles unexpected situations in an efficient manner and often manage to get the best out of it. He learns quickly and usually does not repeat the same mistakes. What a privilege for his further career. He wants to be rewarded for his efforts and relates his success to the material aspects. He is dependable and solid in almost any kind of situation. He doesn't panic or scare easily. He has a business-like attitude to problems and realizes quickly what needs to be done. He also has a good understanding of money and matter. He shows leadership and organization and is physically courageous and competent. He is a survivor.

Very compatible, his First Challenge and his First Pinnacle make his life extremely dynamic and interesting.

Each of us is born with both strengths and weaknesses. Numerology looks at life as if it were an educational process that is meant to bring out and enhance our talents, and turn our weaknesses into strengths. This serves to complete our being.

The job of becoming whole is one in which we must face our weaknesses and consciously work to improve ourselves. There are four Challenges to be faced during our lives. For many of us, the same challenge is repeated, while others have four distinctly different lessons to learn.

The Challenges provide specific lessons that we must attend to, and, in order to inspire and help us, life places us in situations that require the specific characteristics of our Challenge numbers. There are four challenges. Haley First Challenge lasts until his age 30 to 35.

Haley is his own worst critic during this period. He will suppress his individuality and creativity. Each time he wants to make an impression, he probably doubts himself beforehand, and criticizes himself ruthlessly afterward. His criticism of himself is far more severe than anyone else's.

As a result, he tends to play it safe by staying on the surface, indulging in superficialities. He will rarely express what goes on deep inside of him; instead, he covers up his feelings with humor or perfunctory remarks.

He probably often feels alone and lonely.

His fear of social interaction causes him to strain conversation by making too many jokes and forced joviality.

It may help him to find a creative outlet for his imagination, possibly through writing, acting, painting, singing or dance.

At the bottom of the challenge is an effort to bring out his true self. He will learn to truly value his own creative talents above anyone else's judgments. This must be viewed as a process of individuation, in which he becomes a whole human being, independent and free of the need to conform to others.

His First Pinnacle, which lasts from his birth until age 32 vibrates 5. The general conditions and events he will experience during this period, as well as the atmosphere he will be faced are under the influence of this 5 vibration.

He will teach the realities of freedom and expansion. He will travel great distances, meet many new and interesting people, experience many adventures, and essentially come to know the world. He is in a period of accelerated experimentation and learning. Experience is his teacher.

His ability with words is greatly increased. He can write and speak with ease. He is also able to successfully promote yourself. In fact, this is the source of much adventure; new opportunities for work, travel, and exotic experiences present themselves with regularity.

His challenge is to prevent himself from becoming a rolling stone. He needs to ground himself in a particular discipline, career, or relationship. This will not limit his freedoms so much as give him a base for operation. Obviously he is on the good way. Otherwise, he may find himself skipping from one meaningless job to the next, one superficial relationship after another. He could also fall victim to the abuse of food, alcohol, sex, or drugs.

He may fear being anchored or tied down, which can cause him to skim the surface of a pursuit he enjoys, or important relationships.

He must come to know the true meaning of freedom, which is unconditional love. He gives his love and energy without the condition of holding on to a place, a person, or an occupation; and he expects the same in return -- to be loved for what he is, rather than someone who belongs to another. There is a highly spiritual path offering itself that requires detachment without loss of love.

Many turn away from this and instead choose to maintain a superficial relationship with the world, or with other people.

Haley needs to cultivate his talents, especially his verbal and writing abilities.

He must accept limitations as a necessary base for his freedom. Freedom cannot exist without limitations; otherwise he would be without identity, and without existence.

2004 is a year to carefully protect and nurture his plans. He will be like a mother watching over her children, conscious of every threat, real or imagined.

He needs tact and cooperation to keep himself moving forward. There will likely be confrontations with others, requiring a subtle and gentle approach. He will have to stay focused on his goals using intelligent persuasion. Being forceful may work against him; compromises will work in his favor.

He will be unusually sensitive and may wonder at times what happened to the drive and momentum he felt last year. 2004 requires something else from him -- a delicate sense of balance and a willingness to go around obstacles, without losing sight of his goal.
