INTRODUCTION

ALCHEMY OF NUMEROLOGY

Mystery of your cycles

The fundamental premise of numerology is that life is orderly system and that numbers reflect that orderliness. Our understanding of what is the orderliness and what is the random changes with our knowledge. As we learn more, we understand more. Unknown from yesterday is the part of normal knowledge today.

With quantum physics things change enormously. It is demonstrating that the reality of universe is unity in which all things are related.

Numerology is based upon this understanding showing that we are also part of this unique cosmic unity and giving the answers about things that rational mind is not able to enter and understand.

Numbers can be seen as archetypes. Through numbers we can discover our personal code which is our connection with the universe as a whole. Knowing our code we come closer to the understanding not only about our being but about this unity as well.

Forecast Analysis explains some of the cycles that make up our lives. Our life is based upon knowledge and wisdom we accumulate over many different cycles. That is how we form our life experience and our personal growth.

There are numerous cycles in Numerology which are connected to our name and date of birth. Some of them are long-term cycles, some are of shorter duration.

Most of cycles are based upon nine year period corresponding to nine stages of our development. During each cycle we are under the influence of a certain number vibration and only for a certain period of time. While Psychological Character Analysis shows who we are, Forecast Analysis shows where we are in relation to time, what opportunities and outside influences we shall encounter and how we shall deal with them. Of course, according to our personality, which is explained in Psychological Character Analysis through our core numbers' vibrations, we shall approach our cycles in different ways.

It is recommended to know and understand personality before starting analyzing one's cycles.

Some of the lessons learned during the certain period could appear again later on in life and will be addressed from another point of view. Repetitions in experience are the chance to do some things better as we had done them in the previous time.

This reading is composed for you, Paul. It is based on your full name at birth and your date of birth.

Birth name: Paul Leonard Newman

Short name: Paul Newman

Birth date: January 26, 1925

Please check your birth data to make sure the name and date of birth used are correct. I wish you to enjoy this reading.

PINNACLES

The stage of your experience

The Pinnacles are four long-term cycles, or periods, on our Life Path. Each Pinnacle represents a particular lesson we are working on. The first Pinnacle usually lasts from birth to between the ages of 30 and 35. The middle two Pinnacles each last nine years. The last Pinnacle will stay with us for the remainder of our life.

The Pinnacles are very important. The transition from one Pinnacle to the next is always strongly felt. As each Pinnacle represents a particular lesson we are working on we can prepare ourselves for the times ahead by knowing our approaching Pinnacle number.

The transition from one Pinnacle to the next is usually prepared for approximately 2 years in advance. The latter part of that two years period is particularly strong. Perhaps the most strongly felt change -- internally as well as externally -- is the transition from the first to the second Pinnacle. This change usually takes place in our late 20s or early 30s -- the exact date depends on our Life Path number. We begin to feel the impact of this coming change approximately two years prior. This is usually a difficult transition, but once crossed usually provides a clear sense of direction in one's life. It also gives us a much firmer sense of our identity. Paul's First Pinnacle lasted until his age 28 and vibrated 9.

Paul's Second and Third Pinnacle, both with the same vibration 7, lasted each 9 years, from his age 29 to his age 46. It was 18 years period of the same vibration's influence. After that, from his 47 until the remainder of his life Paul is in his Fourth Pinnacle with 9 vibration, the same as in his first one. But this time he approaches the same lessons from different point of view.

First

Paul, this was a period in which you must identify with some larger project or goal that is bigger than you. Your greatest satisfaction is in providing for others, as well as for yourself. Your 9 Pinnacle was a time in which you applied your energies to the good of the larger community.

As a result, there was an element of self-sacrifice present. To some degree, you had to subordinate your personal priorities to those of a larger cause.

This was probably a good time for financial growth and progress in business affairs. It was a period in which you faced a large challenge and had to give yourself entirely to it.

The 9 Pinnacle also promises much reward in drama, writing and art. You have a heightened esthetical sense, and any latent artistic talent you already possess was enhanced and brought to the surface. If you had been in business, you may have suddenly been drawn to the arts as a benefactor or patron, supplying support for theatre productions or artists.

You felt an increased sense of social responsibility and compassion for the many. You wanted to help those less fortunate than yourself and likely applied yourself to some social cause or philanthropy. That was a period in which you felt a greater love for the good of your community, country, and the world.

Interestingly, you were not restricted by prejudice or boundaries of class or country. You saw humanity as a whole. Your love was not personal, however, but for the many.

Many under the 9 Pinnacle are drawn to religion or philosophy and have the capacity to spread some doctrine or teaching.

In short, you were highly idealistic. Paul, you probably travelled extensively during that period and meet people from many walks of life.

No matter what your area of expertise, it was time not only for success but for fame.

Second & Third

That was a period of inner development and soul searching. Paul, you dealt with the deeply important questions of personal existence and the meaning of life. You probably needed to be alone to contemplate your inner world. That was a time of spiritual growth. You experienced a heightened sense of faith. The power of the universe was the force that carried you along.

That was a time of specialization. Your ability to concentrate was greatly increased. Paul, your desire to study in all forms, reading, self reflection, and contemplation, reached an all-time high. Your intuition was much more sensitive, making your path a little easier and more direct, since you knew intuitively the appropriate next step.

Under those two Pinnacles, you became an expert in one particular field. Your capacity to penetrate the depths of a subject area was enormous. You were able to look below the surface in virtually everything you encountered. It was very possible that you found yourself in a teaching role.

It was time which demanded consciously work on your closer relationships, especially with your spouse and children. You had to explain that your desire to turn inward was not an escape or an avoidance of those you loved, but a deep need for knowledge.

During these two 7 Pinnacles, spiritual growth, increased knowledge, and wisdom were the big rewards. Those Pinnacles provided the basis for contentment in older age, because you began to understand life more deeply.

Paul, your challenge was to avoid becoming critical or cynical of others. You could have become so withdrawn from society that you looked down on others. You might have forgotten that you, too, were part of the imperfect human race. Your desire to attain some high degree of perfection was sincere. But that pursuit could make you miserable if you lost perspective and failed to realize the relativity of human existence. Perfection is a Utopian goal, but an unrealistic ambition. It probably caused you to be dissatisfied with yourself and others.

Fourth

This Pinnacle is the same as the First. You have already experienced its vibrations and now you are more familiar with all its aspects. Repetitions in experience are the chance to do some things better as we had done them in the previous time.

Paul, this is a period in which you must identify with some larger project or goal that is bigger than you. Your greatest satisfactions have been in providing for others, as well as for yourself. As a result, there is an element of self-sacrifice present. To some degree, you must subordinate your personal priorities to those of a larger cause and make a conscious effort on your part to strike a balance between the good of your milieu and your own personal desires.

This is a good time for financial growth and progress in business affairs. It is a period in which you face a large challenge and must give yourself entirely to it.

You will feel an increased sense of social responsibility and compassion for the many. You will want to help those less fortunate than yourself and will likely apply yourself to some social cause or philanthropy. This is a period in which you feel a greater love for the good of your community, country, and the world.

Interestingly, you are not restricted by prejudice or boundaries of class or country. You see humanity as a whole. Your love is not personal, however, but for the many.

It is possible that you are drawn to religion or philosophy and has the capacity to spread some doctrine or teaching.

In short, you are highly idealistic. Paul, you will likely travel extensively during this period and meet people from many walks of life.

It is a time of fame.

CYCLES

Youth, Maturity and Wisdom

Like most stories, there are three great divisions of our lives: the First, Youth Cycle is an opening period. It finds us groping to realize our true nature; at the same time, we are trying to cope with the powerful forces that are present in our environment, our parents and the socio-economic conditions of our family, for example. The Second Cycle, Maturity Cycle, is a middle period of our lives. It brings about the slow emergence of our individual and creative talents. The initial part of this cycle, the early and mid 30s, represents a struggle to find our place in the world, while the late 30s, 40s, and early 50s, and sees us with a greater degree of self-mastery and influence over the environment. The Third, Wisdom Cycle, is our final Cycle. It can represent a flowering of our inner being, such that our true nature has finally come to fruition. It is during this period that one has the greatest degree of self-expression and power.

Paul's Youth Cycle lasted from the birth until his age 28 and vibrated with 1. After that Paul is a very long period under the same vibration.

Paul's Maturity Cycle, which lasted from his age 29 until his age 55, and Wisdom Cycle, which started at his age 56 and stay until remainder of his life, have the same vibration 8.

Youth Cycle

This was a period of much intensity. It required fortitude, courage, and flexibility. Paul, you were forced to use every one of your talents in order to achieve your own personal individuality and independence. This was a period of integration and a focusing on your life's dream. Your grip on your direction was tested, but somehow the resources were available to overcome any obstacle and emerge from that time all the stronger. It was a time requiring independence, resilience, and strength, but those characteristics became integral part of your personality. This cycle marked a time of progress.

Maturity Cycle & Wisdom Cycle

From your age 29 you entered into the influence of the 8 vibration, which is the vibration of both your cycles, Maturity and Wisdom.

As already said about repeated vibrations, you have been passing through the same life lessons from different points of view, which evaluated with your experience.

You are under an extremely benevolent period for work, career, and financial reward. The key has been hard work and the willingness to dedicate after setbacks or difficulties. Paul, you have greatly enhanced abilities as a manager, organizer, and financial planner. You have a gift for seeing the broad picture and carrying out bold plans. You have been able to gain financial freedom during this period. Business and career activities go well, but require much attention and commitment. You have been pushed to take control of your career or enterprise and bring it to new heights. It has been a time when power falls to you, but must be used wisely and with purpose.

TRANSITS

Specific influences taking place in your life during given years

The Transits are the individual letters of the name that combine to form the Essence, which is the number that reveals a great deal about our year ahead. Our name can be seen as a piece of music that vibrates in time. Each note, or letter, has a specific duration and influence over the course of your life. Our life, therefore, can be seen as a musical score, with the individual letters making specific contributions at given points, just as notes in a musical piece are played at specific points to give a piece of music its rhythm, character, and nuance.

The Transits appear as part of our Progressive Chart and tell us much about specific influences taking place in our life during given years.

Paul's Physical Transit for age 78 until age 80 vibrates in the rhythm of U

This is an intuitive and sensitive time in which you may find yourself unwilling to put out much effort. Paul, you lack motivation and initiative. A lot of old and long forgotten emotional issues may surface. People you have not heard from in a long time will call upon you. Relatives and family may require effort and attention. You have much creativity and enhanced self-expression. Use it and promote yourself.

This Transit offers an opportunity for great achievements in the arts, especially in writing, acting and music.

Paul's Mental Transit for age 75 until age 79 vibrates in the rhythm of O

This is a time of strong emotional experiences, which can affect your health if you let it. Paul, you may find yourself worrying unduly. There is much responsibility placed on your shoulders, with sensitive emotional issues involved. You will find yourself more interested in religious and physical studies. Your leadership abilities are enhanced during this time.

Paul's Mental Transit for age 80 vibrates in the rhythm of N

Paul, you will have opportunities to expand your horizons. There will be adventurous experiences and travel. A change of residence is very possible. This is a dynamic time with many new activities. You will make some important social contacts. You search for love and fulfilment. Sacrifice, adaptability and flexibility are called for. You will also be concerned with finances and may worry too much about these matters. You tend to be forgetful during this time. You will also feel more sensual than usual. Physical exercise is important during this period.

Paul's Spiritual Transit for age 75 until age 79 vibrates in the rhythm of N

Paul, you will have opportunities to expand your horizons. There will be adventurous experiences and travel. A change of residence is very possible. This is a dynamic time with many new activities. You will make some important social contacts. You search for love and fulfilment. Sacrifice, adaptability and flexibility are called for. You will also be concerned with finances and may worry too much about these matters. You tend to be forgetful during this time. You will also feel more sensual than usual. Physical exercise is important during this period.

Paul's Spiritual Transit for age 80 vibrates in the rhythm of E

Paul, you will feel inspired and helpful. There can be change in career, travel, and possibly another residence. You are attracted to new and adventurous experiences, including love affairs. There can also be marriage. Although this is a good letter for finances there may be a lack of focus and a more frivolous attitude, which will adversely affect your chances of real material progress. You feel attracted to new religions and philosophical ideas.

ESSENCE

The stage of your experience

The Essence Number and the Personal Year Number are the two essential indicators of the forces that will influence your life during the course of any year. While the Personal Year runs from January to January, the Essence is most strongly felt from birthday to birthday. For example, if your essence number is 5 for the year 2004, you would begin to feel the influence of that 5 most powerfully after your 2004 birthday. The influence would begin to wane during 2005 and would finally end at your 2005 birthday.

The Essence number indicates the lessons you will be dealing with during that year. It says a great deal about how you will perceive your environment. It also gives clear advice on how you can be most successful during the year, that is, which types of behaviour will be supported by your milieu, and which ones will be less effective.

Paul's Essence at the age of 78 and 79 vibrates 14/5

This is an important time of progress and advancement along the lines of your talents. Paul, you will experience a relief from burden and increased personal freedom. Any talent you possess in writing, public relations, and the arts will be greatly enhanced. At the same time, business matters flow quickly and new opportunities for expansion seem to arise out of nowhere.

People are attracted to you and seek to help you achieve your goals. You possess an almost magical ability to promote yourself. Your fluency with words is greatly increased. You are more charming and attractive, which opens many new doors.

This is a period of travel and much learning. Opportunities to visit distant lands, encounter foreign cultures and peoples, and learn about life will come to you. Your personal growth will speed up considerably.

As such, many old habits and outdated methods will fade from your life. It is as if you are being catapulted from the old and outworn, into a new and fast-paced period of personal growth and development.

Paul, your desire to satisfy your senses will also increase dramatically. You must be careful not to overindulge in food, alcohol, sex, and even drugs.

Sudden events and chance occurrences will come your way. You must be alert to your opportunities. This is not a period of sitting back and waiting, but a time to move ahead rapidly.

Your challenge is to remain focused on your more long term goals. Be disciplined in your work. Don't have too many irons in the fire. Sort out the important projects and endeavours and see them through from start to finish. Focus, discipline, and completion are the keys to your success. After your 2004 birthday you enter into the new Essence number which for 2005 is 13/4.

PERSONAL YEARS

The trends and circumstances during the year ahead

Our Personal Year number is a strong indication of the trends and circumstances we will experience during the year ahead. Our Personal Year cycles are based on the Universal Year cycles and therefore run concurrent with the calendar year. Transit and Essence cycles are based on the letters of our name and run from birth date to birth date.

There are nine personal year numbers, which makes up a complete Epicycle. Each Epicycle reveals the progression or evolution of a specific part of our growth. Our progress along this Epicycle can be seen very logically, from the infancy or beginning of a growth period in our life, to the conclusion or culmination of that process. The 1 personal year indicates our first steps in a new direction. The years that follow indicate our progress along this path, concluding with our 9 Personal Year, which completes the cycle. Description of our current Personal Year indicates where we are on the 9 year Epicycle. The Personal Years form the building steps that mark our progress through life.

Paul's Personal Year for 2004 vibrates 6.

This is a year of progress and financial advancement, Paul. Major career opportunities present themselves. It is a challenging year in which personal growth is joined with new responsibilities and challenges.

This is a year of domestic responsibility and attention to the needs of family and friends. It is a time of heart felt emotions and some sacrifice. It is a time for comforting and caring.

You realize the importance of your place within your community. You will be called upon to help others bear their burdens. You are the proverbial friend in need.

Paul, you must work to create an atmosphere of harmony and balance. It is often a time when marital issues surface and need attention. However, you possess the understanding to deal with such issues effectively if you apply yourself with love and flexibility.

PERSONAL MONTHS

Short and temporary effect of monthly cycle

Personal Month cycle is short. The vibration of our monthly cycle indicates what opportunities, obstacles and outside influences we will encounter during the given month and how we will deal with them. Therefore, it helps to remember that it is in the nature of a cycle to be only temporary.

It is also good to know that the vibrations within the monthly or daily cycles have less impact than the yearly cycle.

What is following below are Paul's Personal Month's vibrations for the months of 2004.

January vibrates 7

Paul, January is a 7 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and brings stability and clarity. Your career shows promise, but there is not any promotion or practical gain just yet.

If you are involved in legal affairs or have wanted to take care of something that involves the law, this month is a good time to start the necessary procedures. You may be notified of an impending legal procedure that affects you or a loved one.

Study or read and enjoy the much needed quiet after last year's hectic pace. Domestic affairs play a major role during this year and begin now. However, you will be feeling more intellectual than emotional during this month. Tolerance and forgiveness will not come naturally and you could be a little self-righteous. Try to be more flexible.

February vibrates 8

Paul, February is an 8 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and may bring upheaval in family affairs or with friends. The 8 carries a powerful balancing energy and much of that will be directed to your relationships. The truth will come out and you will have the opportunity to heal relationships that have been damaged by misconceptions. Real relationships will become stronger but superficial ones will break down.

Rewards and recognition in your career will also come to you this month. Often, the 8 Personal Month/6 Personal Year brings considerable progress and financial gain.

Romance is also strongly represented. You meet an attractive person, but the challenge here is to approach the situation with sensitivity and awareness. If you come on strong, you will blow the opportunity. Focus on sensitivity and avoid the temptation to be rude at all costs.

March vibrates 9

Paul, March is a 9 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and is often emotional because you may have to let go of someone close to you.

You experience relationships more deeply and feel greater warmth for others. You reach out for contact and substance. Other people will also be drawn to open up their hearts and minds to you. This reflects strongly in your relationship with family and friends, but also in the work-environment. People will come to you with their problems, seeking an understanding ear and a shoulder to cry on. You feel closer to your fellow man, and because of your attractive disposition you will receive much support from others.

Good news may come from your work that will boost your self-esteem. Move slowly and carefully where romance is concerned, however, because you are not in a position to make long-range plans.

April vibrates 1

Paul, April is a 1 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and brings new beginnings in several areas of your life. You have more energy and are ready to implement some changes in your life. Display aggression in your career and it will progress nicely. Start new projects. Take a chance. A 6 Personal Year often brings considerable financial gain, particularly in or around the months of April or November.

This is also a time in which matters of the heart come to some kind of climax. Young lovers get married, married people re-commit, and troubled relationships either work it out or separate.

The month of April brings challenges in the area of communication. Be careful what you say and how you say it so you don't stick your foot in your mouth. Actively pursue the things you want in your career, finances, and love-life.

Romance is very positive now and more people find their soul-mate during this period than at any other time during the 9 year cycle.

May vibrates 2

Paul, May is a 2 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and focuses on harmony and diplomacy in all relationships, including the work-environment. You are more sensitive and aware of the feelings of others than you were last month and you will be called upon to use those abilities. You will find yourself in the role of mediator/peacemaker in order to maintain harmony in the work place. Become a hard-nosed yet diplomatic negotiator. Find a balance between tact and sensitivity on one hand, and persistence and conviction on the other.

You will be able to meet these challenges and will come through with flying colours. Financial rewards will come. Keep things organized and take care of details or else you may find yourself in chaos by the end of this month. If you are involved in a legal tangle, and quite a few people in this stage of their Personal Rhythm Cycle are, you will gain some ground and find good reasons to be optimistic.

Romance is highly favoured now, especially for new relationships.

June vibrates 3

Paul, June is a 3 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and an excellent time to give yourself a break. Take some time off. Enjoy yourself. Don't be too serious. This is a time of enhanced creativity and originality. Become involved in playful activities. Participate in social events. You will meet new people who offer a welcome change to the routine aspects of your life.

Your career may seem unpredictable now but will be much better next month. "Luck" in financial affairs is likely now. Romance is also favourable. Enjoy.

July vibrates 4

Paul, July is a 4 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and it is a time to seriously apply yourself to your duties and responsibilities. Take charge in home, career, and community affairs. Be patient and apply yourself to routine and details diligently. Organize your personal life and your career. Tie up loose ends. Start projects that will improve your living situation such as repairing the house or starting a garden.

Someone in your circle of friends and relatives needs help. Usually, this is a younger person who has not yet found stability or purpose in life.

This month may well bring an excellent opportunity in your own career. Focus on legal affairs. Discipline and effort are the key-words for this month.

Romance takes a more serious turn. Expectations are expressed and commitments made.

August vibrates 5

Paul, August is a 5 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and brings some changes in work and your personal life. It is a dynamic time and nothing goes according to plans. Play things by ear.

Your career progresses well as a result of your enhanced ability to find creative solutions. You make a good impression on some people who are in a position to reward you. There will, however, be a confrontation between you and a co-worker, with long-ranging affects. The outcome will depend on your personal strength and self-confidence.

If you are involved in business deals or legal affairs, some surprising changes may take place. In all areas of your life, flexibility and adaptability are important. Paul, your friends and family require a lot of attention. Social gatherings are frequent and will bring new relationships into your life.

Travelling, perhaps across the ocean, is possible and favourable.

Romance is exciting. Be socially active. If you are single, you could meet someone who will be a permanent part of your life.

September vibrates 6

Paul, September is a 6 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and forces you to deal with the issues of responsibility and loyalty. Devote your time and energy to the needs of family and community. Become involved in some sort of activity that will benefit others financially. You will, and should be, concerned less with your own financial affairs, than with those involving others. Be selfless and generous in all areas of your life. It is a time to forgive and heal. You are highly aware of your bond with the people you love, as well as with neighbours and co-workers.

Legal affairs you might be involved in come to the foreground.

Financially, September has the potential to be very good.

Romance is shaky. Choose your words well and follow up on promises. Don't forget birthdays.

October vibrates 7

Paul, October is a 7 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year. Distance yourself somewhat from the affairs and troubles of other people. During the course of this year you have been asked to help, counsel, and advise others many times. Now, give yourself a break. Spend time alone for contemplation and meditation. Study and reading are also favourable. Your workload does not decrease but much of it is routine and allows you to mentally drift. Still, your mind is sharp and you can easily concentrate when you want to.

Inner healing takes place. Old wounds may be reopened. There is some sadness and nostalgia, but the healing is real and needed. This is a time of spiritual growth. Postpone decisions regarding financial affairs, if possible, until next month.

Matters of the heart are also a low priority. You are not very clear this month and would rather not be bothered with it. Emphasize your personal well-being. Diet, exercise, and go for walks. Don't distract yourself from soul-searching by watching television or other mind-numbing practices.

In many ways, your experience of this month will set the tone and direction for next year.

November vibrates 8

Paul, November is an 8 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and is an excellent time for business ventures, financial affairs, and all things related to the material world. You receive recognition for past effort in the form of financial rewards, respect, and possibly promotion. Implement any changes you have been considering in your business affairs. As always, when the 8 shows up in the chart, a certain amount of balancing takes place. Punishment and reward are both possible. If you have put out sincere effort, the reward will be there. However, for some people, this month may bring bad news.

This is a good time to straighten out financial dealings you may have with friends or relatives as well.

This is not a good time to go into debt. But it is a good time for love. Strong feelings and passionate exchanges on the emotional and physical level make this an exciting month.

December vibrates 9

Paul, December is a 9 Personal Month in a 6 Personal Year and it is the second time this year that some letting go has to be done. A relationship is going to end. This can cause some distress, but there are also feelings of gratitude. Your feelings run deep, but you have difficulty expressing them.

You feel vulnerable and emotional. You are attracted to giving your time and energy to something outside of yourself.

Clean out the garage or attic and donate the excess to charity.

There are changes in the work situation, such as a shift in personnel. In a strange turn of events, you may find yourself having to defend your actions and motivations. Your honesty may be questioned.

If you are single, you may meet someone later this month.

If you are committed, you may feel you are involved in a roller-coaster kind of relationship. Not to worry, things calm down by the end of the month.

FINAL COMMENTS

Some advice

Paul, your desire to satisfy your senses will also increase dramatically during 2004. You must be careful not to overindulge in food, alcohol, sex, and even drugs especially during August, as the influence of your Essence Number will be the strongest in August. As you are in the 9 Pinnacle, read about its vibrations during March and December and try to follow the given advice. Think about your life reading about your Wisdom Cycle vibration (8) during your November. You could find a precious message for this part of your life.

Here comes the answer on the personal question.
